

The Richfield Difference

Richfield Living is a not-for-profit senior living community located on 52 beautifully landscaped acres in Roanoke County, near the City of Salem, and expanding soon into Roanoke City. As the stages of life change, we offer a range of options to meet your family's needs: rehabilitation following surgery or illness, social interaction in our retirement residences, and extra support for those needing additional care. All in one place, with special commitment to exceptional senior living.

That's the Richfield difference.

Honoring our founder's generous spirit

In an effort to honor the caring and generous spirit of our founder, Jane Morgan Harris, Richfield Living has committed to building, encouraging and nurturing the spirit of generosity and a culture of giving.

Richfield, known originally as "Mercy House" opened its doors in 1934, with a mission to help individuals experience life to the fullest, through every phase of their journey.

As a not-for profit community, Richfield Living must balance the need to keep fees affordable with the desire to perpetuate high standards. Our conservative financial management has allowed us to meet our goals, but growth within our greater service aspirations must come from other sources.

Through your contribution to Richfield, we can enhance our services, facilities, and amenities.

To learn more about how you can get involved, please contact Scotti Hartman, at 540.380.6555 or email at shartman@richfieldliving.com.
